Guidance Document & Revised Front Sheet Template

Please be advised that a revised Front Sheet template has been posted to the OPRS website along with a guidance document. Beginning August 1, 2008, all submissions to OPRS should include an updated front sheet using this latest version. This includes initial applications, amendments, and continuing review submissions.

Most significant changes are located in Section 4 and relate to protocol coordination, funding, protocol type as well as procedures involved. When completing the Front Sheet, please be sure to read all options carefully, as many new options have been included.

Please do not hesitate to contact OPRS if you have any questions or require additional information.

Please contact OPRS with any questions
