

OPRS NEWS

The following news update from OPRS informs users of enhancement to the ONCPRO new user sign-up form: option to choose both adult and pediatric subject populations

OPRS NEWS ALERT

9 -11-2006

ONCOLOGY PROTOCOL SYSTEM UPDATE

For all new users signing up for the Oncology Protocol System (ONCPRO) and for all current users directing new users to ONCPRO:

There is now an option to select both adult and pediatric subject populations.

For all current ONCPRO users:

If you do not currently have access to both adult and pediatric and need access to both subject populations, please direct your request to onlineoncpro@partners.org. Only users who need access to both subject populations will be granted this access.

NOTE:

Instructions to gain access to ONCPRO remain unchanged and can be viewed on the OPRS website at:
