

Dear DF/HCC Research Community,

The Clinical Research Operations website page has been renamed to "Clinical Research Unit" or "CRU". This term is consistent with the language in the DF/HCC Core Grant. The content and the links to the website remain the same. Please feel free to contact us with any questions.

To access this site from the Clinical Trials Portal, click on Clinical Research Unit \(DF/HCC SOPS\), which is located just below OPRS on the Portal Menu.

To access this site directly from the DF/HCC intranet: <http://www.dfhcc.harvard.edu/clinical-research-support/clinical-research-operations-cro/policies-and-procedures/>
