

REQUEST FOR APPLICATIONS CAREER ENHANCEMENT PROGRAM AWARD

Specialized Program of Research Excellence (SPORE) in Brain Cancer

The Neuro-Oncology Program at the Dana-Farber/Harvard Cancer Center (DF/HCC) is seeking applications for the Career Enhancement Program (CEP) projects focused on adult or pediatric gliomas. Funding will be provided through the National Cancer Institute (NCI)-sponsored Specialized Program of Research Excellence (SPORE) mechanism for two awards. Eligible candidates are those who are in the final year of clinical fellowship or postdoctoral fellowship (M.D., Ph.D. or equivalent rank are required) or are within 5 years of their first faculty appointment who holds the current rank of Instructor or Assistant Professor. Applications will be judged on 1) their scientific merit, 2) their potential to contribute to the overall status of the DF/HCC Neuro-Oncology program and 3) the agreement of the applicant's departmental chair to provide matching funds in the amount of $24,000 direct (+ institutional/nonfederal indirects), to be included in the application as a letter from the chair.

The application deadline is October 18, 2024. Awardees will be notified by October 25, 2024. Funding will start on November 1, 2024, and will be provided at $24,000 total (direct) from the grant to be spent by August 31, 2025, plus $24,000 (direct) from the applicant's department. Funds can be used for salary and/or support of research at Harvard Medical School or Harvard-affiliated hospitals and institutions.

An application consists of the following components, submitted as one PDF document:

1. Abstract (1-page maximum).
2. Research Plan (3 pages maximum excluding references): Specific Aims, Background and Relevance to Gliomas, Preliminary Data, Experimental Methods, Analysis Plan.
3. NIH Biosketch of Principal Investigator and Mentor.
4. Mentor Letter of Support (1-page maximum).
5. Other Support for Applicant and Mentor (NIH form).
6. Budget and Budget Justification (1-page maximum).
7. Letter from applicant's department chair agreeing to provide matching funds of $24,000 direct (+ institutional/nonfederal indirect) to be included, if awarded.

Applications should be submitted by October 18, 2024, to Dr. Paul Mintz (pmintz@bwh.harvard.edu).
Minority and women applicants are strongly encouraged to apply.
