

Dana-Farber/Harvard Cancer Center
Parker Institute for Cancer Immunotherapy

Continuing Umbrella of Research Experiences (CURE)

PICI PARKER
INSTITUTE
FOR CANCER
IMMUNOTHERAPY

POST-BACCALAUREATE SCHOLAR PROGRAM

A full time, paid training experience to foster scientific and professional development for students pursuing graduate or medical school and careers in immunology and biomedical research.

PROGRAM FEATURES

- Full-time, mentored cancer immunology research experience
- Competitive salary + benefits
- Research presentations at local and/or national conferences
- Training in STEM literacy and scientific communication
- Individual Development Plan meetings to prepare for graduate or medical school
- Journal club participation and facilitation

ELIGIBILITY

We invite applications from students who: have obtained a BS/BA within the past year; have a competitive academic record; have significant research experience and interest in the field of immunology ; AND can make a 2 year full-time commitment.